6. Insurance policies have been covered and insured, i.e., namely being Seacoast Shipping Services Limited. Our insurance coverage may not adequately protect us against all material hazards, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Seacoast Shipping Services Limited may face challenges in maintaining profitable operations if freight rates decline or become highly volatile, affecting its revenue and margins.
8. The shipping and logistics sector is sensitive to economic cycles and geopolitical events. During economic downturns, there is a decrease in trade volumes, which can lead to reduced demand for shipping services.
